

THE REAL DEAL

August 2006

East Williamsburg

Aria

134-136 Powers Street

The 20-unit condominium will offer 15 different layouts. These include two-bedroom duplexes, one-bedrooms with terraces, and European-style flats, one of which has a private garden. Units will range in size from 600 to 1,400 square feet, with most ceilings reaching 17 feet. Elliot Tamir is the developer; Andres Escobar & Associates designed the apartment interiors and environmental art consultant Novo Arts is directing the lobby project. The building is slated for completion in early 2007. The Developers Group is the exclusive sales and marketing agent.
